

NEW MOUNTAIN CAPITAL COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF REDPRAIRIE, A LEADING PRODUCTIVITY SOLUTIONS SOFTWARE PROVIDER

Milwaukee, Wis. – March 24, 2010 – RedPrairie Holding, Inc. (“RedPrairie” or the “Company”) announced today that New Mountain Partners III, L.P., a private equity fund sponsored by New Mountain Capital, L.L.C. (“New Mountain”), has closed its acquisition of RedPrairie. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

RedPrairie, founded in 1975, is a leading global provider of productivity software solutions that enable manufacturers, distributors and retailers to increase revenue, reduce costs and compete more effectively. The Company offers comprehensive supply chain management, workforce management, and in-store productivity solutions in market leading end-to-end solutions. RedPrairie’s “best-of-breed” solutions are consistently deployed in the most complex and demanding supply chain and retail environments and create substantial return on investment for its customers through improved management of labor, inventory flow and transportation.

“The completion of this acquisition marks an exciting new chapter in RedPrairie’s history,” says Mike Mayoras, CEO of RedPrairie. “We believe there are many exciting opportunities to further accelerate our business, provide more value to our customer base, and enter new markets. We look forward to working with New Mountain, our new board members, our employees, and customers to capitalize on these opportunities.”

Alok Singh, Managing Director of New Mountain, states, “RedPrairie has consistently added meaningful value to its customers through its market-leading productivity solutions, all aimed at enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of the operations of its world class customers. We intend to work closely with RedPrairie’s management team and help them accelerate their growth and strategic development with the goal of providing enduring value to customers and further build on their existing position of being a leading productivity solutions provider.”

The RedPrairie senior management team will remain in place. Mike Mayoras and Martin Hiscox will continue as members of the Board of Directors. Steven Klinsky (New Mountain’s CEO), Alok Singh and Peter Masucci will join the Board from New Mountain. Nanci Caldwell (former PeopleSoft CMO), Lawrence Jackson (former Wal-Mart Global Procurement CEO and President), Tom Manley (former Avaya CFO and former Cognos CFO) and Janet Perna (former IBM Information Management General Manager) will also join the Board as independent directors.
